

What Does That Mean?

report—a loud noise

brooch—a decorative pin worn on clothing

tally—mark or score

rollicking—joyful and carefree sideboard—piece of furniture used for holding dishes, knives, forks and spoons.

disgustedly—with a strong feeling of dislike soak—in the game of baseball, to tag a player with the ball so he/she is out.

Three Old Cat—an early form of baseball with three bases